

Princess Program

This is not a competition!

The Miss Seven Rivers Princess Program is a mentorship program to spend quality time with great women role models. Young girls between the ages of 6-12 are eligible to participate. Participants will spend quality time with local titleholders who will help young girls gain confidence and self-esteem. The workshop includes time spent with Miss Seven Rivers 2011 Raeanna Johnson who will talk about empowerment and confidence; Miss Seven Rivers Outstanding Teen 2011 Jenna Flick who will speak about Bully Prevention; and Miss La Crosse/Oktoberfest 2011 Kate Gorman who will share about Hunger and hunger prevention.

A dance will be taught to the young girls. This dance will be performed during the 2012 Miss Seven Rivers Pageant starting at 3:00pm on January 21, 2012. Each participant will receive a "Princess Boot Camp" t-shirt that she will decorate. Each participant will wear black pants and then change into their "Princess Boot Camp" t-shirt for the dance performance.

Every Princess Receives:

- A Princess tiara (donated by Charlotte's Bridal)
- A Princess "Boot Camp" t-shirt
- A Princess purple camouflage sash
- A pizza snack
- Workshop by local titleholders
- 2 tickets to the Miss Seven Rivers Pageant
(one for the Princess and one for the chaperone)
